

fail to appear, or appearing, shall not have qualified, the other judges or judge present and qualified shall appoint from among the friends of the candidate in whose interest said judge or judges who failed to appear was or were appointed, some other person or persons having the requisite qualification to act as judge or judges of said election, and administer to him or them the oath or affirmation required in the preceding section, so that there shall always be three judges at such election; and if any or both of said clerks shall fail to appear or qualify within the time aforesaid, the judges of election of said ward shall appoint from among the friends of the candidate in whose interest said clerk was appointed, one or both clerks, as the case may be, having the requisite qualifications, and qualify them to act as such; no votes shall be received by the said judge or judges until the number of judges and clerks shall have been completed and qualified as provided under the provisions of this sub-title of this article.

281. No person shall vote at any such election who is not a duly qualified and registered voter in the ward where he offers to vote, and has not also the qualifications prescribed and published as hereinbefore required by the managing convention of the political association or party under whose authority the election is called.

Ibid.

282. It shall be the duty of the executive committee of the managing convention of the political association under whose authority any such election is called, to furnish to the board of police of said city a ballot-box for each ward, containing a poll-book, a printed copy of this law, and of the resolutions and rules adopted by said managing convention for the conduct of the election, and a copy of the registration lists of the ward, duly certified by the clerk of the superior court; the said clerk being required to furnish such certified copies to any such executive committee upon demand, and upon the payment of the usual fees; and it shall be the duty of the said board of police to cause the said ballot-boxes to be delivered immediately before the opening of such election, to the judges of election of each ward, at the respective polling-places; before any ballot shall be received,
